The Last of Chéri

The women in his life I knew the story before going in, but it was still surprising. Cheri has measured his life's state from those moments he spent with Lea in this book.

Chéri (novel)

The novel ends with his back to her as he leaves and him filling his lungs with air the way an escaped convict might. But the picture of Lea was so powerfully drawn that the book came together for me.

Chéri (novel)

Although this may be true, in the light of morning, he sees how she has aged tremendously and realizes that the Léa he longed for is gone. No one can write about the despair of indifference like someone who has felt it.

La Fin de Chéri

Cheri, after serving in the First World War, returns to Paris and looks for meaning in his post-war life. I thought this book was good - even though not much happens.
