White, Stokes and Allen - BBC

And whan I sawgh he wolde never fine
To reden on this cursed booke al night,
Al soodeinly thre leues have I plight
Out of his booke right as he redde, and eke
I with my fist so took him on the cheeke
That in oure fir he fil bakward adown.
And up he sterte as dooth a wood leon
And with his fist he smoot me on the heed
That in the floor I lay as I were deed.
And whan he swagh how stille that I lay,
he was agast, and wolde have fled his way,
Till atte laste out of my swough I braide:
"O hastou slain me, false thiefe?" I saide,
"And for my land thus hastou mordrede me?
Er I be deed yit wol I kisse thee."
