RSC 1985, c C

In this case, the applicant would be well advised to provide the Director the full notice provided under applicable rules of procedure, in order to avoid the necessity of the Director requesting a postponement of the court hearing. The trustee shall give to the holders of debt obligations issued under a trust indenture, within thirty days after the trustee becomes aware of the occurrence thereof, notice of every event of default arising under the trust indenture and continuing at the time the notice is given, unless the trustee reasonably believes that it is in the best interests of the holders of the debt obligations to withhold such notice and so informs the issuer and guarantor in writing. See below for an example.

Exception A corporation may in the capacity of a legal representative hold shares in itself or in its holding body corporate unless it or the holding body corporate or a subsidiary of either of them has a beneficial interest in the shares. Specifically, the Supreme Court considered the presence of a fairness opinion from a reputable expert and the access of shareholders to dissent and appraisal remedies to be, among others, indicia of fairness in a proposed arrangement transaction. Witnesses testified before the Committee in support of CBCA amendments requiring annual director elections and prohibiting staggered boards with overlapping terms of office for directors.
