

Who marries whom? - educational systems as marriage markets in modern societies

Kluwer Academic - Who Contacts Whom? Educational Homophily in Online Mate Selection

Description: -

-
Civilization, Modern.
Education, Higher.
Equality.

Marriage. Who marries whom? - educational systems as marriage markets in modern societies

-

European studies of population -- v. 12.

European studies of population -- 12

European studies of population -- 12 Who marries whom? - educational systems as marriage markets in modern societies

Notes: Includes bibliographical references.

This edition was published in 2003

Filesize: 59.710 MB

Tags: #Marriage #Patterns

Who Contacts Whom? Educational Homophily in Online Mate Selection

As in other parts of the world, illiteracy rates in the MENA region are higher among rural than among urban populations see Figure 5 for an example. States that the elderly are more likely to have a high degree of life satisfaction if they engage in plenty of activities. Further supporting the beneficial consequences of educational expansion for growth is research on the impact of government investments in education.

Do Opposites Attract? Educational Assortative Mating and Dynamics of Wage Homogamy in Switzerland, 1992

Similarly, in South Africa, despite educational expansion, educational disparities played an important role in maintaining race-based differences in occupational status in the 1980s Mickelson et al. In this book we study the changing role of the educational system as a marriage market in modern societies from a cross-national comparative perspective. The results show that the unadjusted probabilities are 0.

Gender, education, and family life courses in East and West Germany: Insights from new sequence analysis techniques

Most of this research focuses on mature democracies where citizens have rights to participate in political processes through voting and opposition or protest. For this reason, the link between education and economic welfare for those remaining outside of the school system may be different, on average, than for those already in the school system. Weblink Download reference in Pagnini, D.

Gender, education, and family life courses in East and West Germany: Insights from new sequence analysis techniques

She is currently pursuing a study on the deconstruction of discourse of the recently enacted Right to Education in India.

Motivations for Pursuing Cross

The effects of educational expansion on ethnic inequalities in occupational status are also mixed. Therefore, all such variations in culture and social beliefs are reflected in the mate selection process in India. Religious assortative marriage in the Netherlands, 1938-1983.

Empowering Women, Developing Society: Female Education in the Middle East and North Africa

In South Asia and the Middle East, expanding education overall has occurred in the context of persistent, sometimes extreme gender gaps King and Hill, 1993. The study therefore examined educational homogeneity in India for specific marriage cohorts on the assumption that socioeconomic changes in the country will have a distinct effect on an entire cohort and, hence, it will be easy to differentiate cohorts from one another.

Related Books

- General motor bus album
- Ozias Leduc et Paul-Émile Borduas
- New Israel - a commentary on the book of Isaiah 56-66
- Student guide to intellectual heritage
- Armando G. Antille - abogado de la legitimidad