candidates to convey their personality, can be a tricky medium to express your temperament. Follow Jeff on and on Twitter.

What to Expect in a Programmer Interview

How to Answer Personality Interview Questions Be aware that the whole point of personality interview questions is to get away from generalities. Interviews are a bad time to trash anyone — even the previous employer who eliminated your job. Is it your expertise in a particular skill or technology? But you can include that you already have a plan to overcome this weakness through training or practice or have already started down this road.

You must keep your guard up until you are in your car and driving away from the interview. Again, as with strengths, while you have many accomplishments you could describe, the smartest strategy is to focus on your recent accomplishments that make it clear you can do their job very well. You should also appear as if you are excited to be there, since hey, hopefully, you are! As shared as an example, her company recently interviewed a candidate who immediately went into a monologue about her opinions regarding mask-wearing and COVID-19.
