

Letters to Emma Jane

Robin Clark - Jane Fairfax

Description: -

-Letters to Emma Jane

-Letters to Emma Jane

Notes: Originally published, London , Eyre Methuen, 1977.

This edition was published in 1979

Filesize: 21.11 MB

Tags: #Letters #and #Correspondence #in #Austen's #Emma 0413380505

Yes, Harriet, just so long have I been wanting the very circumstance to happen that has happened. Upon such occasions poor Mr. Miss Harriet Smith may not find offers of marriage flow in so fast, though she is a very pretty girl.

The Project Gutenberg eBook of Emma, by Jane Austen

And that is all that I can recollect of it—but it is very clever all the way through. I wanted them to put off the wedding. We will not despair, however.

Letters to Emma Jane (1979 edition)

I wonder what will become of her! Weston, to congratulate her, and a very proper, handsome letter it was. Weston need not spend a single evening in the year alone if he did not like it.

Letters and Correspondence in Austen's Emma

It would be such a delight to have her picture! She has been gone longer already than she intended.

0413380505

This would not do; she immediately stopped, under pretence of having some alteration to make in the lacing of her half-boot, and stooping down in complete occupation of the footpath, begged them to have the goodness to walk on, and she would follow in half a minute. Harriet, here comes a very sudden trial of our stability in good thoughts. We had had a great deal of trouble in persuading him to sit at all.

[PDF] Letters To Emma Jane

Captain Weston was a general favourite; and when the chances of his military life had introduced him to Miss Churchill, of a great Yorkshire family, and Miss Churchill fell in love with him, nobody was surprized, except her brother and his wife, who had never seen him, and who were full of pride and importance, which the connexion would offend.

0413380505

She knows now what gentlemen are; and nothing but a gentleman in education and manner has any chance with Harriet. Knightley, I shall not allow you to be a fair judge in this case.

Related Books

- Mighty African children move victoriously into the twenty-first century!
- Processo legislativo municipal
- Northern Saskatchewan bibliography
- Cur Deus homo
- Sorevnovanie dvukh sistem - ékonomicheskie sopostavleniia: Issledovaniia, diskussii, obzory, inf