We have identified specific codes, standards, and practices affected by each of the recommendations in its summary report for the WTC towers and already begun to reach out to the responsible organizations to pave the way for a timely, expedited consideration of the recommendations. In addition, the Masters suggested that we consider whether it is possible to obtain an order for a reference and a trial at the same time. But the range of interests protected by procedural due process is not infinite.

Further, Judge Broderick issued a far-reaching order that will probably result in the disappearance of the Special Master. It will probably never be possible to reconstruct the activities of the scattered soldiers of the 2nd Battalion. Existing law provides that an affected contractor, subcontractor, or responsible officer may obtain a review of the determination imposing the debarment or civil penalty within 30 days.
