Upper Tampa Bay Trail

The Upper Bucks Rail Trail is a part of the Circuit Trails network, a growing trail system across Greater Philadelphia with a goal of 800 miles of connected trails. Next, a skinny log ride. Beyond, the trail crosses Waters Avenue and parallels Memorial Highway to the westernmost trailhead.

This one is critical if you're headed for the DH trails. The trail itself was very well maintained with a wide asphalt smooth path from end to end.

The Upper James River Water Trail

Radio Flyer is only 0. But they both end with a rock-drop as you bounce back down to the main trail.

The trail is used extensively and it is a joy to connect with people I normally would not even see! This is adjacent to the Commuter Parking lot in Milford, which is a slightly more centrally located spot.

Hillsborough County

Road crossings were easy and the traffic was quite kind.
