I'm Just Happy to Be Here: A Memoir of Renegade Mothering by Janelle Hanchett

I thought of the first chapter as a condensed version of my mythology. Naturally, a memoir came next, just as the E! I was even interested in her thoughts about comedy writing, despite that fact that it is something I never plan to attempt in own my life.

I want to write my memoirs. Where do I start?

I started reading Hanchett blog when I was in my twenties and suddenly stopped reading all the blogs I followed. I am not a recovering alcoholic. Jake is the author of several young adult novels and has spent the past two decades developing and inspiring young writers.

Here's Where I Stand: A Memoir

As someone who is most definitely never ever going to do stand-up comedy, I have still really enjoyed these.

David Rockefeller's book 'Memoirs' admits secretly conspiring for a NWO

This book gave me a lot more perspective on my family, sobriety and all of our journeys to find love and know ourselves, warts and all. I went through a bunch of first chapters. Reese Witherspoon is not only an accomplished actress, but a successful entrepreneur and businesswoman.

50 Essential Memoirs — Barnes & Noble Reads

It's for all of us. I would recommend it to anyone who could use a good kick towards introspection and want to hear a story of real survival, but want the real version, not a self-help book.

12 LGBTQ Memoirs You Should Read This Pride Month

Tears were spilled, feelings were hurt, books were re-read. At first, I wrote whatever popped into my head: a day, a conversation, a description of a place.

Here's Where I Stand: A Memoir

I am convinced that there is a piece of Janelle's story in all of us as mothers, daughters, addicts, and lovers of addicts.
