Faulkner's Absalom, Absalom! by James L. Roberts (1964, Trade Paperback) for sale online

Buck escapes for the time being, though he eventually marries Sophonsiba, and Tennie and Turl achieve their marriage. She is a center of peace and faith and fertility, though all around her may be waste and catastrophe. Similar to Cassandra, the very gifts that enable Benjy to tap into a higher power are what sever him from communicating his divine knowledge with the outside world.

Absalom, Absalom!: Chapter 1 Summary & Analysis

When she is abducted by Popeye, she is freed of the social restraints that have never been made important to her. Exactly why this happened is, of course, impossible to discover, but those interested in the question will welcome Volume 2 of Faulkner -- A Comprehensive Guide to the Brodsky Collection: the Letters, edited by Louis Daniel Brodsky and Robert W.

Analysis of William Faulkner's Novels

The image in the mirror is unclear. No one who is alive, except Henry, knows what passed between Sutpen and Henry in the conversations that broke off the marriage and led to the murder, and Henry tells no one before his own death.
