How to Write a Conclusion for a Research Paper (with Pictures)

Most of these records relate to the period of the investigation of President Kennedy's assassination, November 1963 to September 1964, but some records of earlier and a few later dates are included.

The sixth International Prison Congress held at Brussels, Belgium, August, 1900 : report of its proceedings and conclusions /

This article has been viewed 2,128,686 times. Body of the report This is the main part of your report, where you present your work. If your paper proceeds in an inductive manner and you have not fully explained the significance of your points yet, you need to do so in your conclusion.

IT report: structure

Yet at any other age than the divisive present, the report would not have been seen as controversial. Your discussion section should demonstrate how well you understand what happened in the experiment. At this point, you only need to write the body inclusive of the headings and subheadings to the end.

Writing a Science lab report

A research paper is an analytical discussion of an academic topic, not a mystery novel.
