The Journeys in on JSTOR

Regan and Goneril deceive King Lear when they pronounce their insincere love for him.

SCENE III. The British camp near Dover.

A herald, ho, a herald! K: My father watches: O sir, fly this place; Intelligence is given where you are hid; You have now the good advantage of the night: Have you not spoken 'gainst the Duke of Cornwall? The fool is, however, a necessary character.

King Lear Sample Answer: Imagery, Characters and Themes

Thou art not vanquish'd, But cozen'd and beguil'd. Some good I mean to do, Despite of mine own nature.

Summary of King Lear

Lear had blamed himself for any coldness but agrees to look into a problem in Goneril's household. Do NOT make me say it again! Gloucester is deceived by Edmund and believes the treachery of the good Edgar. The relationships between characters throughout all of King Lear are extremely intense, and in the end, the intensity of the play is what enthralls the reader.

Lear's journey

Dry up in her the organs of increase; And from her derogate body never spring A babe to honour her! The oldest have borne most; we that are young Shall never see so much, nor live so long.
