Role of Lawyers in Divorce Cases

Some lawyers will take advantage of a common misunderstanding that they are paying for the whole enchilada by trying to hook people with a low, low retainer fee, and then filling up your mailboxes with invoices once the time the retainer represents has been used up.

Role of Lawyers in Divorce Cases

Based off InsideGov's data, the most difficult states to get a divorce include Arkansas, New Jersey, Rhode Island, South Carolina and Vermont. Does equitable distribution mean that a court divides marital property equally? Learn more about these useful resources on our.

Tax Returns Bring at least the most recent tax return filed by you and your spouse, if you file a joint return. Some people may wish to be informed of every single developing detail, while others prefer to be kept in the loop on only the bigger things. First, you want to meet with the most competent and experienced attorneys before your spouse does, which prevents them from hiring a great fit first.

26 Questions to Ask Before Hiring a Divorce Attorney

It's a low-cost way to address practically any other disagreement you and your spouse may have.

10 things to bring to your initial consultation with a divorce lawyer

If you find yourself in the former category, make sure your lawyer will be available and willing to share information with you. Will a court consider this and award me a greater percentage of our marital property? Whether or not your lawyer knows your spouse's lawyer may matter to you less than if your lawyer knows your spouse, but it's still something to take into consideration. You're going to need it all.
