Prediction of War from the Poem by E.J. Pratt:

Patterns of imagery and symbolism in the poetry of E.J. Pratt.

You have expressed exactly what I meant to convey in the conclusion of The Roosevelt and the Antioch, and indeed in the whole of the poem: man's unremitting struggle with Nature, and his indomitable courage in pitting his strength against hers, no matter how great the odds. Poetry Analysis by Charmaine Year 7 The Shark E. The images of evil are the most moving in the poem

The Shark Poem by Edwin John Pratt

The poem suggests that the one million-year old fossil for Java man had similar emotions as well as interior life as that for contemporary man, and that contemporary and ancient man take part in sin, raw emotional life and also spiritual redemption moments as denoted by Gethsemane where Jesus and the disciples prayed before crucifixion.
