In January 2008, the government began offering a restricted program of free secondary education.

Teaching the Historians Craft

A common craft axiom states that by the end of a story, a protagonist must either change or fail to change.

The Art of History

I do not intend, as an initial matter, to assign individual students to bring in a clipping each day. Women's Legal History Syllabus Syllabus
COURSE DESCRIPTION Although American law generally has been framed in generic terms incumbent on all citizens, male and female, many aspects of the law have been experienced differently by men and women. Your search may lead you to the Sierra Club.

Note

A 33 year old student we will call Jane had approximately 5,000 words memorized, but she could not figure out how to read a single word she had not already seen. Remember, that the point of these assignments is not that you agree with whatever you think my or your classmates' ideas might be on a particular question, but that you are thinking in an engaged way with what you are reading. The Guinea government defines literacy as anyone who can read or write who is at least 15 years old.
