Denver Nuggets Playoff History

March would be solid month for the Nuggets as they posted a winning month for the only time in the season at 9-8 sparked by a strong start where they won five of six, including four straight.

In Game 4, the Nuggets tied the series at 2-2 with a victory, but a memorable moment became a haunting moment for Denver fans. The Nuggets continued to play well into December, as Carmelo Anthony was among the league leaders in scoring, highlighted by a 50 point performance against the New York Knicks on November 27th. James unsurprisingly went first overall, but for some odd reason, the Detroit Pistons selected Darko Milicic second.
