A treatise and discourse of the lawes of the forrest (Book, 1978) [perssongroup.materialsproject.org]

Each page is checked manually before printing. It was revised, enlarged, and published by Thomas Wight and Bonham Norton in 1598 as A Treatise and Discourse of the Lawes of the Forrest copy included with this lot, see below. This beautifully written manuscript precedes the authorized edition of 1598, and, rather than preparatory, appears to have been intended for presentation, perhaps by Manwood to the dedicatee of the work, Charles Howard, 1st Earl of Effingham.

Treatise Discourse Lawes Forrest

This underwent numerous subsequent editions and remained a standard reference on forest law through the mid-1900s. Manwood was the great great grandfather of Sir , from 1829 to 1843. .
