The New Tower of Babel: Modern Man's Flight from God

The life of an unborn child, no longer viewed as a blessing, becomes an inconvenience for many. The ascent to the top is on the outside, by a path which winds round all the towers.

Six Lessons From The Tower of Babel

Certainly it would be difficult to imagine a civilization who had been experiencing God for some time, as is described in the Bible, to leave Him out of their plans in establishing a new city. Nevertheless, God did choose the place for his Presence to dwell for a time in the Temple. Hollow bricks built on the shifting sands of materialistic capitalism and corrupted democracy, built on the backs of the poor, built on false illusions and lies.
