Introduction to Old English

The dating system for Old English quotations cited in OED3 The dating of quotations has been radically revised: the New English Dictionary's practice of assigning putative composition dates to quotations typically preserved in manuscripts of much later date a practice which resulted in quotations from Beowulf being given no date at all because of its uncertain date of composition has been abandoned. Changes have occurred in both indentation and font size. If you find any mistake or you are able add new data: please do it.
