Protestant Reformers

It is an honest account and no attempt is made to glorify Luther with even his weaknesses being addressed.

The lasting impact of Martin Luther and the Reformation

In the same year he enrolled in the instructors of law, giving every sign of being a dutiful and, likely, a very successful, son. He is, as his biographer Lyndal Roper has recently shown so compellingly, a difficult hero. The Reformation did not receive overt state support until 1525, although it was only due to the protection of Elector who had a strange dream the night prior to October 31, 1517 that Luther survived after being declared an outlaw, in hiding and then.
