Hannibal Barca

Her foremost leaders, Hamil- car and Hanno, wasted in their mutual jealousy the xxiv INTRODUCTION. The outposts conducted them into the Roman camp; all the remaining details connected with their restoration to their homes were carried out as he had arranged with Bostar, precisely as if the business were being transacted in the name of Carthage. Quum ii pro nobis proque iis, qui absunt, ita suspensi ac solliciti sint, quem censetis animum ip- sorum esse, quorum in discrimine vita libertasque est? Atqui et ad Aliam cum Gallis et ad Hera- cleam cum Pyrrho utraque non tam clade infamis quam pavore et fnga pugna fuit.

Livy. (1844 edition)

His opinions, however, are highly lucid and you can see the influence his thought had upon Machiavelli, for instance when he speaks of the dangers of using armies made up of mercenary soldiers.

Second Punic War

The account of Polybius in.
