THE MOWER 96 By permission of the Artist. Eleanor also travelled widely, principally to the south of France and to Italy, sketching and painting as she went. Neglected throughout much of the twentieth century, Waterhouse has enjoyed a dramatic revival of fortune.

Fraternitas Praeraphaelitarum

Transcendent expressiveness is the moving quality in all Strudwick's works ; and persons who are fully sensitive to it will take almost as a matter of course the charm of the architecture, the bits of land- scape, the elaborately beautiful foliage, the ornamental accessories of all sorts, which would distinguish them even in a gallery of early Italian paintings. That such an attempt should have been made seems ludicrous, when one stops to consider what the characteristics of Strudwick's own mature style are. The school logo was designed by Eleanor.
