In other words, the amendment authorizes

Consideration of Treaty (OS 22, OS III)	To make new (through produce documents, general instructions, or otherwise) that the standard of evidence for establishing the link between the digital origin of source documents and the money laundering offence does not require a separate cover decision as in art 287 para 3 seems to require. To adopt the secondary legislation needed for the implementation of the Criminal Code provisions on corporate criminal liability. To review the codes of sub-paragraphs of art 287 (1) and to amend the military offence of "betrayal" as existing also in sub-para 1(a) (and to move this sub - para at the end of sub-para 1) To examine whether greater use should be made of the previous communicating money laundering when investigating all must proceed - generating offence. To review the current Criminal Code provisions criminalizing the financing of terrorism to make them more consistent and ensure they explicitly cover the various elements (financial acts, terrorist organisations, individual persons) and the collection of funds, along the lines of the TFEU Convention and the FATF Special Recommendations 12.	Although no guidance was issued, standard of evidence does not require a separate cover decision but a very high standard of proof is required regarding digital origin of assets. In 2007, the Parliament approved Law No. 9712 of June 14, 2007 "On the Criminal Liability of Legal Entities" which makes legal persons subject to criminal liability and provides sanctions legal entities for all offences. With the enactment of this law, legal entities are now subject to liability for violations of Albania's ML criminal provisions. Article 287 CC was revised and Article 287 CC enacted into the previous assessment. According to the committee of a ML offence is covered in the case of Article 287(b) but not in all cases. By Article 287 offences. Authorisation on reviewing use of ML provisions but under indication continues. CC provisions were reviewed and 2007 CC amendments added a specific provision that criminalizes the collection of funds (Article 230(d) and revised Article 230 which sets forth a definition of terrorist acts. With the changes, there is no separate element - the

The use of various languages by the law in the centuries of its development have led to a curious legacy, the use of two or three words to describe the same thing. The readers confusion is increased when she arrives at sections 7, 8, 9, and 10 of the Act which define in detail who exactly is entitled to vote in a Presidential, Dáil, European or Local Government Election.
