It has to work right away. In 1984 - 1985, Riopelle, who has been experimenting for many years with ceramic technique, creates with Hans Spinner in Opio, France, a series of enamelled lava, which will be exhibited at Château-Musée de Vallauris. That year, on the occasion of the bicentenary of the French Revolution, the Canadian government presents France with the painting Point de rencontre 1963, which is installed at Opéra de Bastille, in Paris.
