Thomas Carlyle

He pointed out measures to liberate women, in which the most important measure is to better education, so that women have the equal opportunity to develop as men. This is really part of a larger criticism of the conception of psychology and human nature underlying Benthamite utilitarianism, which Mill elaborates in his essays on Bentham. This shows that the truth-tracking argument condemns only unsuccessful or incompetent censorship.

The Christian Church

But then the right or obligatory act would seem to be the one that promotes utility the most or maximizes utility. These new reforms gave the state positive, and not just negative, responsibilities that sometimes required interference with individual liberties.

John Stuart Mill's Liberal thought on Education and the Dissemination of Education in Enforcing the Right of Liberty

The legal moralist principle 1 asserts only a pro tanto or prima facie reason to regulate.

The Christian Church

A broad survey of various types of religious writing in the period, which mainly investigates influential but lesser-known writers from various theological perspectives. That the only purpose for which power can be rightfully exercised over any member of a civilized community, against his will, is to prevent harm to others. For one thing, Mill need not confuse desire and desirability.
