16 Kids' Books to Inspire Them to Explore the World

If this frightening illusion of good and evil is left as it is spreading around the world, the achievement of world peace is nothing but a mere dream. A delicate tune from a tiny window builds a bridge between people, wrapping around them like a blanket and telling people what they need to hear. The book does an excellent job exploring religious dress as a means of expression, while also introducing multiculturalism in an understated yet effective manner.

Scribble Street News: The Picture Book World Cup

Thus begins a moving story about David, who has autism, and his older brother, who is trying to understand the world David inhabits. Such a monochrome world is a theme of this picture book.

16 Kids' Books to Inspire Them to Explore the World

David's world is a story told from David's brother's point of view. The simple flat-color illustrations have a strong graphic design feel, but coupled with the bright colors and the catchy rhyming text give the book a light and versatile feel.
