Clancy Cooper

The story was great, he said, and whoever wrote it should continue to write. But overall a pretty good book. Sykes then orders Diamond to dispose of Lok Archer's body and to continue Sally's efforts to cultivate as an ally.

The Warehouse (audio story)

On the planet below, the Doctor discovers that the computer might be the least of their problems — and that they should be more concerned with the spacestation's mould and vermin. He shakes Jane loose while trying to wake up Jesse, and lying on her back, she starts to vomit.

The Warehouse (audio story)

Not a drug dealer who would have killed you if he could; a girl who posed a threat only to your Type A neuroses and your pocketbook.

Enemy of the Daleks (audio story)

There had been many near-future science fiction novels, and plenty of space operas far in the future, but few were about the time between. We stand around, peering at the controls and seats, and climb our way down. He had the leading role in the series from 2002 to 2007.
