To remain, he used to spend it where Allāh's Property is spent (i.e. in charity). Allāh's Apostle kept on acting like that during all his life. Then he died, and Abu Bakr said, "I am the successor of Allāh's Apostle." So he (i.e. Abu Bakr) took charge of this property and disposed of it in the same manner as Allāh's Apostle used to do, and all of you (at that time) knew all about it." Then Umar turned towards 'Ali and 'Abbas and said, "You both remember that Abu Bakr disposed of it in the way you have described and Allāh knows that, in that matter, he was sincere, pious, rightly guided and the follower of the right. So, both of you said to me, "Hand it over to us on this condition." And on this condition I handed it over to you. So you want me now to give a decision other than that (decision)? No Allāh, with Whose Permission both the sky and the earth stand fast, I will never give any decision other than that (decision) till the last hour is established. But if you are unable to manage it (i.e. that property), then return it to me, and I will manage on your behalf." The sub-narrator said, "I told Umar bin al-Khattāb of this Hadith and he said, "Malik bin Anas has told the truth" I heard 'Aisha, the wife of the Prophet, saying, "The wives of the Prophet sent 'Uthman to Abu Bakr demanding from him their
