All opinions are my own. Embrace curves A punchy painted archway is an easy way to create a graphic focal point without redecorating.

Paint Hacks For Instantly Updating Home Decor

I continue to be amazed that even after a year of East Texas extreme weather, all the finishes look as good as the day I painted them. The only tools needed for the job: drop cloths, ladders, rollers and stamina. With my living room remodel, I have been looking for ways to work in pops of white and black to my decor and I simply poured Testors flat white enamel into a clear glass jar, swirled it to cover all the glass and I have an instant pop of white.
