Title IX Education Amendments

Wrestling historically was the most frequently dropped sport, but other men's sports later overtook the lead, such that according to the NCAA, the most-dropped men's sports between 1987 and 2002 were as follows: Cross country 183 , indoor track 180 , golf 178 , tennis 171 , rowing 132 , outdoor track 126 , swimming 125 and wrestling 121. In the case of action, not otherwise subject to judicial review, terminating or refusing to grant or to continue financial assistance upon a finding of failure to comply with any requirement imposed pursuant to section 1682 of this title, any person aggrieved including any State or political subdivision thereof and any agency of either may obtain judicial review of such action in accordance with chapter 7 of title 5, United States Code, and such action shall not be deemed committed to unreviewable agency discretion within the meaning of section 701 of that title.

Office for Civil Rights Blog

The Tower amendment was rejected, but it led to widespread misunderstanding of Title IX as a sports-equity law, rather than an anti-discrimination, civil rights law. The purpose of the Title IX Office is to develop, implement, and monitor campus-wide efforts to ensure compliance with Title IX legislation, and to ensure that there is a prompt and equitable process to respond to alleged complaints of sex discrimination.
