Olga Rozanova

Her Non-objective composition, 1918 also known as Green stripe anticipates the flat picture plane and poetic nuancing of color of some.

Olga Rozanova

Rozanova's father died in 1903, and her mother became the head of the household. In January 1912, her two works, Portrait and Still-Life, appeared at the next Soyuz Molodyozhi exhibition in January 1912. The case of small-scale flows, when the rolling force and friction are not essential, is taken up separately.
