Instead the initiative was taken during the reign of Septimius Severus, and in particular just before he embarked on the ill-fated British campaign that would end with his death in York in AD 211. The latter, however, can be disputed given that the high level of recruitment from Barbaricum has been questioned. During the second half of the 19th century, the Roman Empire was already considered one of the key players inside the Eurasian networks.

Rome Beyond Its Frontiers: Imports, Attitudes and Practices

Somewhere among the heaps of corpses, anonymous and despoiled, the Emperor Valens lay, stripped of all imperial dignity and probably unrecognized by the victorious Goths. Beard is especially good on this. This arrangement leads to juxtapositions of formally or environmentally similar sectors of the limes, which permit more direct comparisons and contrasts than conventional geographical and regional surveys allow.

Although five were alder, and could not be dated, cleaning revealed numbers notched into their sides, presumably by the military construction teams.

Germany: The Roman Frontier

He recounts with pleasure his racy tales of psychopathic cruelty, incest, paedophilia, matricide, fratricide, assassination and depravity. In spite of the tendency of historians to ascribe blame for the Gothic War on Roman incompetence, the fact remains that the Goths showed callous disrespect for their Roman hosts, commencing their pillaging almost immediately. While the focus is often on their similarities, the differences are equally enlightening.

And all of it began because of an immigration crisis. Virtual survey One of the obstacles to investigating the Roman border has always been the dense tree cover. At first, this was merely clearance work, but the newly-discovered artefacts needed a home, and thus museums sprang up along the former frontiers, such as Budapest in 1802, Leiden in 1818, Bonn in 1820, Cluj in 1859, and Vienna in 1881.
