It should now no longer be possible to exploit its AI to 'lose' it and have it attacking independently - Maelstrom is faster and his Obliterate ability has a larger radius and a shorter explosion delay, so expect a greater challenge - Dustwalker's Shadowcall has been revamped; a hit from a Shadow slows its target less than before, but their attacks always hit, the ability has a larger radius, and the Shadows spawn near their target, rather than near Dustwalker. I am incredibly happy that To the Bitter End can be enjoyed by more people, and am fantastically grateful to Кирияндия for the many hours he put into making this happen.

Only a swarm of dark spectres are responsible for clouding him in an artificially created cultural fog.

To the Bitter End Campaign

I won't talk about the comment section, it's absolute rubbish. Extensive re-balancing issues and some important and unexpected personal commitments had slowed work during the last month, although I have still made progress. The reaction of the German security services to the race riots in the East German town of Chemnitz had raised questions about right-wing infiltration of the state apparatus.
