The reasons behind this are varied, but as we discuss on later pages, one of the main reasons was the black Americans understood the Germans' plight, and indeed many of them saw Adolf Hitler as the liberator that he was. Meanwhile, the weakened and exiled liberation movements received new recruits fleeing political persecution at home giving impetus to the struggle against Apartheid. The letter is endorsed by General Joseph Bradford Carr 1828-1895.

Exile and Discipline: The June 1948 Campaign Against Collective Farm Shirkers

Paris 1944: Women accused of collaboration with Nazis are paraded through the streets; they often had their hair cut off as a form of humiliation.

But they were more familiar with the character of one of them, while the other was almost a stranger to them. The Vichy authorities did not deploy the Army of the Armistice against resistance groups active in the south of France, reserving this role to the Vichy militia , a paramilitary force created on 30 January 1943 by the Vichy government to combat the Resistance; so that members of the regular army could defect to the after the German occupation of southern France and the disbandment of the Army of the Armistice in November 1942.

Women and Apartheid

The Programme of Action was launched with the Defiance Campaign in June 1952. We appreciate the fact that those of another race are different from us.
