The Education for All Handicapped Children Act of 1975

In 1984, the administration dropped its attempts to weaken EHA; however, they did end the Social Security benefits of hundreds of thousands of disabled recipients. Our mission is to empower every American with the tools to understand and impact Congress.

The Education for All Handicapped Children Act of 1975

The requirements for individualized education have not been met. In 1990, amendments to the law were passed, effectively changing the name to IDEA. Please help us make GovTrack better address the needs of educators by joining our advisory group.

The Education for All Handicapped Children Act of 1975

This historic legislation was implemented in the public schools in October of 1977 once federal regulations were finalized. Follow on Instagram for new 60-second summary videos of legislation in Congress.

Education For All Handicapped Children Act (1975; 94th Congress S. 6)

The Bureau of Education for the Handicapped BEH has estimated that twice the number of handicapped children needing special education exist as those identified by the States.
