3 Day Travel Itinerary

Since the eradication of and the establishment of permanent waterholes for stock, the number of, and in the Flinders Ranges has increased. The last full-blooded Adnyamathanha died in 1973, but many members of this tribal group live in Puthadamathanha. Throughout this period temperatures are a little bit cooler, making it a little more comfortable to get out and explore some of the bush-walking trails.

Things To Do In The Flinders Ranges

We have come directly out of the dreamtime of the great creative ancestors. The best way to appreciate the huge scale is to book an early morning from Wilpena Pound.
