This book has been considered by academicians and scholars of great significance and value to literature. This useful work was afterwards so enlarged and supplemented by his disciple, Professor Reinhold Rohricht, that the new edition, published in 1890, gives an almost exhaustive list of the pilgrimages--from the earliest down to modern times-- undertaken by pilgrims who have left some account of their voyages; together with full details as to where those relations are to be found--and whether in manuscript or in print--or both.
