State Election Result Canvassing

If the date the term begins for any other elected official is not provided by law or home rule charter or plan of government, the governor shall issue a commission: a To an official elected for a full term at the gubernatorial election, within thirty days after the date on which the governor is inaugurated. If, by the time of its scheduled canvass meeting, the State Board has not received the county canvasses, the State Board may adjourn for not more than 10 days to secure the missing abstracts. If there is a further vacancy, the remaining members of the commission shall agree on another elected official to fill the vacancy.
