From one angle of vision, and the simplest, human, angle, Bligh was the husband of a niece of the overseer of the Thames Prison Hulks, and a West Indian merchant, Duncan Campbell d. In 1781, he married Elizabeth Betham and almost immediately set sail again with the Royal Navy as a senior master, being involved in the Battle of Dogger Bank and the Siege of Gibraltar, both battles in Europe between Britain, Spain, France and Holland connected with the American War of Independence.
