In being victim-focused, it seeks to bring healing to victims, secondary victims and the community, as well as true accountability for offenders in confronting them with the consequences of their actions.

Child Abuse (for Parents)

Hi, i have a almost 8 month old demand breastfed baby who wont take a bottle and her father wants to take her away from me for 6 separate days a month, as we were never together etc i am the sole gaurdian he pays child support and has rights i have never not let him see her or anything but is he aboud to take her away even if i say no or does he have a leg to stand on if it goes to mediation or whatever?? In sharp contrast, your own financial engine is running on fumes.

Protecting children from online abuse

In a New Zealand study, Church 1984 stated that half of the children surveyed had to be protected by their mother during the confrontation. Davis and Carlson 1987 found that, through clinical testing of 77 children, those who displayed their reactions aggressively were pre-school boys. The researchers concluded that the degree of network connectedness enabled them to distinguish between not only clinical and non-clinical populations high abuse and low abuse but also high and low risk localities.

Child support

I am wondering if I need to inform the biological father of my two girls? Prolonged absences from school paired with reasons that make little sense — out for a week, she was told once, because the student slid and fell. All my six-year-old son wanted from Santa for Christmas was a passport. Adopting a proactive, health promotion approach, the educational program at the centre of the project both implicitly and explicitly strengthens children's natural resilience.

I occasionally get a glimpse of my son Wendy I walked out of court with absolutely nothing: I had no home, no money — my ex had destroyed all my possessions and my passport — but, most importantly, no son. However, with this model, it is important to emphasise that children be not made to feel responsible for the violence in any way.
