The Sovereign Gold Bond Scheme 2020-21-Series VIII had opened for subscription from November 9 to 13, 2020. Few 1879 sovereigns were struck at London, and those that remain are often well-worn.

Gold Sovereign

Gold Sovereigns were used not only in Britain These gold coins were not only used in Britain as it spread to almost all part of the world. The alloy had not changed since then, except in 1887, when silver was used instead of copper in the mix.

Gold Sovereign

However, their actual value is much higher, thanks to their high gold content and the collectability of many issues. They look nothing like a crude copy of the time, made of very little gold, thus being either underweight or too large.
