Leicestershire Clockmakers

A short but interesting account of the life and work of Richard of Wallingford, best known for his 'Great Clock' built and installed at St Albans Abbey.

A rare George III four train musical and quarter chiming longcase clock

John Thornton has included much new information and added extensively to the original work by Hewitt. A good copy of the first edition, very clean internally, end papers foxed, corners a little bumped, cloth a little worn to bottom of spine and corners. The first is a listing of Westmorland clockmakers indexed by town; the second contains additional makers not listed in the first paper and part 3 is about the life and work of Jonas Barber father and son of Winstanley.

9780901180476: The Deacon Family of Leicestershire Clockmakers

The classic work on marine chronometers and, over 90 years later, still the best starting point for all those interested in the detailed history of the chronometer, and its pioneers - John Harrison, Thomas Mudge, Thomas Earnshaw and John Arnold. An excellent account of a clock and watch making family and their longcase clocks including two musical examples. Circa 1775 The re-decorated case with skirted plinth and breakarch trunk door, the hood with  $\frac{3}{4}$ -columns, the dial signed Thos.

Accounts and Papers of the Deacon family of Clockmakers, Barton in the Beans

An excellent account of a clock and watch making family and their longcase clocks including two musical examples. A comprehensive list of watch and clock makers for Swansea and neighbouring towns with notes on the development of horology in Wales.

Leicestershire Clockmakers

Carter : The Clock and Watch Makers American Advertiser - Being a compilation of Advertisements of the Trade, including those of the Mathematical and Philosophical Instrument Makers, Published in the News-Papers of the American Colonies and States, from A. A good copy of the paperback edition showing signs of use, corners bumped, covers discoloured, spine creased. This new edition has additional photographs, includes many of Gould's later additions and corrections, and a foreword by Jonathan Betts.

Samuel Deacon pocket watch

This practice is quite common and very often the name on the dial is just that of the retailer. This article attempts to make sense of the numbers, dates and signatures on Deacon clocks.
