Worship & Prayer Â· Seton Hill University

Effective social ministry helps the parish not only do more, but be more more of a reflection of the gospel, more of a worshiping and evangelizing people, more of a faithful community. And the understanding of the right order of relationships then very naturally leads to charity. This is precisely why the cardinal is correct in his claim that the distortion and desacralization of the liturgy has caused so of much of the degradation of the moral life in the Church.

We close these brief reflections with a word of support and encouragement for pastors and parish leaders.

Year of Faith Retreat

At a time of intense consumerism, we insist it is not what we have, but how we treat one another that counts. Neither alone is sufficient; both are essential signs of the gospel at work.

From Worship to a Moral Life and Charity : Catholic Lane

Social ministry not genuinely rooted in prayer can easily burn itself out. We preach a gospel of justice and peace in a rapidly changing world and troubled nation.

It seems that the world today surrounds people with a constant reminder of what money can do for you, how to make more of it, or what to purchase to fit in to societal norms. The voices of parishioners need to be heard on behalf of vulnerable children-born and unborn-on behalf of those who suffer discrimination and injustice, on behalf of those without health care or housing, on behalf of our land and water, our communities and neighborhoods. In the past decade, we have written major pastoral letters on peace and economic justice and issued pastoral statements on a number of important issues touching human life and human dignity.

Liturgy

We are joined to this divine action through baptism, which incorporates us into the risen Christ.

Liturgy

A framework of integration might include the following elements. Martha's, helps lay facilitators from each group plan each meeting. Across our country, parishioners offer their time, their money, and their leadership to a wide variety of efforts to meet needs and change structures.

By going to mass we have chance to focus on God and communicate with Him to listen to his word to praise Him with other Christians and most importantly to receive Jesus into our hearts through the Holy Eucharist. It is a remarkable spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral resource that has been too little known or appreciated even in our own community. The most challenging work for justice is not done in church committees, but in the secular world of work, family life, and citizenship.
