Verbände und Interessengruppen im Transformationsprozeß in Afrika: Annäherungen an ein wenig erforschtes Thema

In diesem Beitrag schlagen wir demgegenüber vor, die regionale Entwicklung zivilgesellschaftlicher Strukturen einerseits vor dem Hintergrund... The context of constitutional developments in Africa calls for a careful use of the term civil society and for a special focus on non-state or grassroots institutions and their role in the development of an enabling environment guaranteeing, under the pressure of modernization and respect for cultural values and structures, sustainable development and social justice in a peaceful revolution from below. Zehn Jahre später hatten nur fünf Länder noch keine Mehrparteienwahlen durchgeführt 3.

Lokale Traditionen und globale Erwartungen: Zivilgesellschaft in Südostasien

Regularly articles included are on varied topics, but the journal also publishes special issues devoted to specific subjects. With the end of the great debate on a New International Economic Order, the ideal of an international order founded on the economic rights and duties of states as formulated in the UN Declaration of 1974 had to yield place to a new concept of development aid concentrating on individuals, the support of democratization processes, the support of procedural and material protection of human rights and, last not least, a market economy as fundamental condition for individual participation and self determination in cultural, economic and political affairs. It is the only German academic journal exclusively devoted to this continent.

Annotierte Kurzbibliographie: Parteien in Afrika (Annotated Bibliography: Political Parties in Africa) on JSTOR

The first two chapters provide a geographical and archaeological background.

Annotierte Kurzbibliographie: Parteien in Afrika (Annotated Bibliography: Political Parties in Africa) on JSTOR

Law and Politics in Africa, Asia and Latin America analyses legal and constitutional developments in all states or regions outside of Europe as well as their regional and international integration. All contributions are original pieces not published elsewhere before.
