The leaves are slightly toned around their edges.

Eleanor Dark: A Writer's Life by Barbara Brooks with Judith Clark: Near Fine Soft cover (1998) 1st Edition

Some spots to top page ends. Her childhood brought out an enterprising spirit that was expressed in persistent tenacity. After the Elna Sewing Machine label was sold in 2006, Eleanor was invited to rejoin the Tacony Corporation, makers of Baby Lock Sewing Machines, as spokeswoman for the Quilter's Dream Sewing Machine Series.

WR Burnett Bibliography of First Edition Books

His story is told here as is that of a fictional character, Andrew prentice, a red-headed convict who escapes, takes a native wife, and flourishes with her in the wilds while his fellow English back at the settlement are near starvation. This biography is based on extensive research and interviews with Eleanor Dark's family and contemporaries. Very close to 'As New'.
