Meanwhile Obama argued for free trade pacts like NAFTA on his Senate campaign trail in 04', then later criticized them while running for president. I love this Howard Zinn quote from the book referring specifically to the war but applicable to so much more.

How America Changed During Barack Obama's Presidency

More Americans are seeking news and political information since the 2016 presidential election and the turbulent times that have followed than at other periods in the past decade. The premise is that Obama is much more conservative than most people think and for him to become a real progressive force, we need to push hard from the left. While Obama remained largely popular internationally throughout his tenure, there were exceptions, including in Russia and key Muslim nations.
