Inculturation of Filipino

The worldwide figure is 10. A valid and valuable question to ask is how far Filipinos have come in terms of theologizing against the backdrop of the effects of colonial rule in eroding their sense of pride and confidence in their own expressions of faith seeking understanding. A living and adapted liturgy is equally called to play a major role in the integration of a very pure faith and the traditional forms of the religious life of peoples.

Tasks in the Inculturation of Theology: The Filipino Catholic Situation

Instead, he approaches culture, context, and religious consciousness with a redemptive purpose.

Description: Inculturation theology of the Jerusalem Council in Acts 15

Inculturation, opposed to uniformity, demands the legitimization of diversity. Beginning from Abraham, Israel is called to communicate the blessings it has received to all the families of the earth.

Another Look at Inculturation on JSTOR

She looks at and wrestles with the realities of Filipino society and tries to find ways to reconcile her faith and Scripture.

Inculturation of Filipino

A single principle explains the totality of relationships between faith and culture: Grace respects nature, healing in it the wounds of sin, comforting and elevating it.

RMA Newsletter: Member

However, it plays down the challenge that Christ offered to his own culture, and suggests that the Gospel, like the divine pre-existence, comes to a culture in a culturally disembodied form.
