Missouri Democratic State Committee Approves Emergency Measures to Protect Against Coronavirus

The Bureau of Refugees, Freedmen, and Abandoned Lands, a branch of the War Department in the federal government, had opened in March 1865 with the purpose of supervising relief activities for refugees and freedpeople. You shall not, from the woman at the gate. At the foot of Main Street they acquired a large pine box on which to place the cannon to elevate it.

A Short History of Snowflakes (or, A Quick Case of Irony)

Illustration from Harper's Weekly, March 14, 1863. Most conventions were organized either as state or national meetings, though there were some regional meetings for New England and the southern states, for example. Two days later, four steam boats pulled up to Jefferson City's wharf and unloaded Lyon, Blair, and 2000 troops who immediately placed the city under military occupation.
