The Chance Label

Peterson, whatever his first name was ; the organist has a brief solo that suggests Bird and Diz at the roller rink. We know we haven't caught up with all of Dick Marx's mid- 1950s appearances on singles. The other members of the group were identified on this occasion as Dave Mitchell, tenor sax; Eldee Young, bass not piano, as stated in the ad ; and Tommy Harris, drums.

In this case, however, the singer hadn't recorded any Bud Brandom properties.

The Chance Label

Sheridan waited, however, until he had the green light from the AFM again.
