Daedalus Hammer

The greenskins roam the plains, make ramshackle camps, and establish strongholds in a constant battle over territory. Tileans are known as extremely skilled traders and are able to swindle anyone but the cunning into a bad bargain, and to take great offence at having their personage or accent mistaken as coming from Estalia. While there are interstate rivalries over such things as trade and natural resources, which have often proved a great source of wealth for some Old Worlders, the near-constant threats to life that exist in this region make working together an occasional necessity.
